Honoring All Who Served

www.phillyveteransparade.org

Greetings Veterans, family members and supporters,

The mission of the Philadelphia Veterans Parade is to honor all who have served. Now in our 3rd year, we will continue to work to make this the best tribute possible.

For the 2nd year, we are having a Veterans Festival at the end of the parade, and hope that you and your family members will attend and take advantage of the VSO's and the other service providers that will be present. We will be having entertainment, a rock climbing wall and other activities for children. We want to make this a family event and more importantly one that reflects the respect and support we have for all veterans.

This parade would not be possible without the support of the City of Philadelphia, most notably Mayor Jim Kenney, City Council President, Darrell Clarke, Office of Special Events, the Streets Department and the Philadelphia Police Department. We also want to recognize the support of Congressman Bob Brady and to the Philadelphia Veterans Advisory Commission.

I must also recognize and thank our presenting sponsor, "Comcast Corporation" for their continued and unwavering support for this event. Other notable sponsors are KPMG LLP, PECO, Wells Fargo, Independence Blue Cross, Council for Relationships, Hands to Hearts and VFW Post 2505.

A thank you to all the volunteers who are an important part of making this happen -we couldn't do this without them. This includes the Board of Directors, who are all volunteers as well.

In the end, the parade is really all about highlighting "Veterans Taking Care of Veterans," including ensuring that they get the honor, respect and recognition they so justly deserve.

Please be sure to check out our website and facebook page after the parade for photos and videos! And please share yours with us!
